

What is “Constructive Receipt”?

The IRS defines constructive receipt as the recognition of income in a given tax year when the income is readily available to the taxpayer and not subject to any limitations - regardless how it is actually paid. ((Constructive Receipt) (Reg. 1.451-2(a))